FIFTY-TWO STUDENTS IN NEW CLUB

"CINE DAY" IS SLATED FOR FRIDAY

New Day May Be Added To Traditions Of Santa Ana J. C.

Will Devote Section Of Del Ano To Snaps

For the purpose of collecting snapshots of college "doings" for the Del Ano, Betty Maloney, editor-in-chief of the yearbook, announced her plans today for an event to be known as "Cine-Day" to be held Friday of this week.

Every student of the college who has a camera is urged to bring it to school and take pictures of students, teachers, classes or anything else possible. Copies of these pictures will then be turned into the officers of the yearbook and selections made for the snap section of the annual.

Permission to hold "Cine-Day" was granted Monday night by the executive board and every effort is being made to make it a success. A box will be placed in the hall for the pictures and the photographers are asked to have their films developed as quickly as possible and turned in. Those not used will be returned to the owners if desired, it was stated by staff heads.

Work on the yearbook is progressing slowly but it is expected that rapid work will start soon. The task of setting type in the college print shop will start soon. All material for the organizations section must be turned in to Elva Cook by Thursday if it is to be printed.

A schedule for club pictures will be announced momentarily and it is expected that the first will be taken the latter part of this week. The Mary Smart studios are handling the photography work.

BACHELORS GET DANCE REPORTS

Hearing reports on the sixth annual Bachelors Ball held at the Lake Norconian club Saturday night and setting dates for several important events for the coming weeks, the Brotherhood of Bachelors held a meeting Monday night in Costa Mesa at the home of Wayne Flinn, newly-elected grand exalted Bachelor of the organization.

Warren Schutz, retiring grand exalted and chairman of the ball, gave a complete report while the members discussed plans for the annual event next year. Schutz also gave a short talk thanking the various committee heads for assisting with the arrangements.

Drama Department to Broadcast Over KREG From Tustin March 11

For the first time in the history of the Santa Ana junior college drama department, a one-act production will be broadcast over radio KREG, March 11th. The one-act play entitled "Submerged" will be broadcast from the Tustin high school by remote control.

This play is a dramatic production dealing with the emotions of a crew of a submarine, which has been rammed and sent down out of control. The crew live in hopes that their osculator will sound out their position to the rescue crew above. They discover that their osculator has been damaged by the crash and the rescue crew cannot find them.

They then decide that one of the crew must be sent through the torpedo tube in order that the crew of

Hammond Will Return From Principal Meet Monday

D. K. Hammond, president of the junior college, is scheduled to return to Monday evening from the annual 10-day school superintendent's conference in Detroit, Michigan, it was announced at the office yesterday.

This meeting is held once a year and high school heads from all over the country attend to exchange ideas and information of interest to principals of other sections of the country.

Alpha Rho Tau In Social Meet

Members of the Alpha Rho Tau enjoyed a delightful social gathering last Thursday evening in the art studio of the junior college. Requested to bring "fine humor, a few pennies, and a five minute discussion of any art topic" the members held stimulating discussions on modern architecture, charcoal drawing, the great portrayal of nightmares, Jean Vollet; soap sculpture, and art as an emotion. Maybelle Ball, new president of the organization, suggested that the club act as an advisory board to any artistic enterprises of the college.

The studio was fittingly enlivened by great masses of bright yellow mustard flowers in which were intermingled stalks of the wild oat. The vivid background of highly colored paper and red checked table covers completed the unique effect.

Refreshments were served to the new members, Janice Black, Doris Bolles, Willetta Bozell, Doris Keeler and to the old members, Maybelle Ball, Geraldine Cole, Beatrice Holly, Adell Wilson, Edgar Fry, Harley Melgran, Virginia Pope, Robert Marshall, Elizabeth Straw and the college faculty adviser, Anna M. Gilles.

P. T. A. Will Hear Dr. Barker Talk

Junior college and high school P. T. A. members will have the privilege of hearing Dr. Charles E. Barker, physical director to former president William Howard Taft, at their regular monthly meeting Thursday evening.

Dr. Barker was a speaker before the high school and junior college student bodies last year. He is well known throughout the nation for his talks on health and the development of youths both of high school and junior college age.

Tatlers Discuss Greek Historians

Lay Plans For Steak Bake At Dana Point

An interesting discussion of four Greek historians, given by the new members Miss Ruth Gardner, Miss Helen Campbell, and Robert Marshall, occupied the regular meeting of the Tavern Tatlers, held Tuesday evening, February 24, in the junior college library.

An extended business meeting was held in charge of the vice-president, Miss Mary Todd Tate, at which it was decided to hold a steak bake at Dana Point, on March 6. Robert Marshall was appointed in charge of transportation, while Miss Elva Cook was appointed to head the food committee. Prospects for new members to attend the production of "Richieu" at the Pasadena Community Playhouse on March 10, topic of discussion for the next regular meeting.

Tavern Tatlers present at the meeting included Miss Ruth Gardner, Miss Mary Todd Tate, Miss Helen Campbell, Miss Alice Myers, Miss Elva Cook, Miss Dulcie Green, Miss Jane Cunningham, Robert Marshall, and the adviser, Thomas Hall Glenn.

Schedule Jaycee Oratorical Meet

Preliminary arrangements and preparations are already under way for the annual Southern California Junior College Conference oratorical contest to be held at the Fullerton District jaycee auditorium on March 21st, it was made known yesterday by Sheldon Hayden, forensics coach for the high school and junior college.

As has been the custom in past seasons, preliminary contests will be held in schools that have more than one promising entrant. The winner will then compete with winners of other schools for a grand prize. Fullerton, Compton, Long Beach, Pasadena, and Los Angeles junior colleges will be represented, and contestants will give their orations, not to exceed eight minutes in length, on any subject that is of interest to them. Judges will be prominent educators and barristers known throughout Southern California.

Final points will be judged on the basis of 50 per cent for delivery and 50 per cent for subject matter. Mr. Hayden announces that anyone interested should give him their names immediately so that arrangements can be completed for the Santa Ana preliminary contest to be held on Friday afternoon, March 13, in the auditorium. The only entrants so far are Ed Conner, who will speak on "India", and Robert duePree who has chosen as his subject "Youth, Prohibition, and the Constitution."

Poster Stealing At S. A. J. C. Continues

That the tendency is remaining for some students of the Santa Ana junior college to steal posters placed in the halls is evidenced by the fact that out of the 13 hand-painted ones distributed last week by the Brotherhood of Bachelors, one is missing.

Following the recent removal of some athletic posters, Anna M. Gilles, head of the Art department, stated that her students would not be allowed to make further ones unless the stealing on the part of the students was curbed. Work done during the year is placed on exhibit at the end of the final semester, and because a considerable amount of the students' time is devoted to poster work, it is necessary that all posters be saved, according to Miss Gilles.

Many students have removed posters from the halls for home decorative purposes without realizing that the Art department has further use for the signs, it was pointed out.

Name Crowley New 'Kiddy' President

Lorean Bear Elected To Vice-Presidency

Defeating Mitchel Hookins by one vote, John Crowley was elected president of the OK Club at the last regular monthly meeting of the organization, which was held at the home of H. O. Russell, 553 North Harwood, Orange. Crowley succeeds Ray Glenner, who headed activities of the club last semester.

Lorean Bear will serve as vice-president during the coming semester, having defeated Russell Koons by a small majority. Closest of all races was that for secretary-treasurer, run between three nominees, and which was finally won by Elma Clare Hymer.

Following the election, John Crowley took charge of the business meeting, at which time it was decided to hold a mountain party sometime in April, at H. A. Scott's cabin in the San Bernardino Mountains. It was also decided to hold an occasional bi-monthly social meeting aside from the regular monthly meetings which generally combine business with pleasure.

Reports were submitted on activities conducted during the past semester and it was found that the club made two bits on the OK drag, held late last January. Activities for the coming semester will include the mountain party, sponsoring of the Beard Contest, Don and Dona election, aside from several parties which are being planned by committees.

Concluding the last meeting an informal social hour was enjoyed. An indoor track meet featured the evening's entertainment, a team captained by Mitchell Hookins defeating that of Simeon Toelle. After the track meet several tables of bridge and five hundred were put into progress, while facilities were provided for those who wished to dance.

Swiss Yodlers Entertain Dons

Students of the Santa Ana junior college today were recalling a musical program in which Zimmerman and Granville, world famous yodlers and recording artists, appeared before the student body yesterday in a number of Swiss yodels and folk songs.

The first two renditions were duets by the entertainers, "In Sunny Switzerland", and "Swiss Girls of the Emmenthal", both Swiss folk songs.

These songs were followed by "Le Cycle du Vin" and "La Petit Jeanneton" by Madame Grandville.

Mr. Zimmerman then gave "The Shepherd, 'King of the Mountains'", and "The Happy Yodler". These numbers were followed by a Swiss Italian group consisting of "L'inverno e passato", and "Quattro cavai che trottano", and finally "Medley of American Lullabies".

Madame Grandville then gave a talk on the yodel as it is given in Switzerland. "Yodeling expresses human feeling, love, loneliness, confidence, and patriotism," she said.

As a final number Mr. Zimmerman gave "Echoes of Switzerland," consisting of "The Mountain Love Call", "The Maiden in Search", "The Country Lovers", and the finale.

Schedule Field Trip For Geology Classes

For the purpose of studying the sea life found among the sea weed and beach rocks, Geology 1B students will journey to the vicinity of Arch Beach, Thursday afternoon.

This trip was scheduled for the same time last week, but was postponed to this Thursday because of tide conditions.

S. A. Jaycee Records Largest Second Semester Enrollment

Santa Ana junior college's enrollment continued to stay at record breaking heights this week, it was revealed by reports from the office when it was announced that 575 students are registered for classes in the school this semester.

At the beginning of the term last fall there were approximately 25 students who entered the institution. The figure at that time was the largest in the history of the college. Although the total has decreased approximately 50 since that time there are now more students attending classes than in any previous second semester since the school was founded.

Of the total number students enrolled, 306 are freshmen. It was pointed out that because such a large portion are in the lower class the school is assured a big registration this coming fall.

Wright Named New Press Club Chief

Meeting for the dual purpose of electing officers and planning a combined social and educational event, the Press club, journalism society of the campus held a short business session last Thursday night in the college print shop. Paul Wright, managing editor of El Don, was named new president.

The meeting was in charge of John "Sky" Dunlap, retiring president of the organization. Nominations were made and the following officers elected to serve for the present semester: Paul Wright, president; Gladys Lloyd, vice-president and social commissioner; Grace Lloyd, secretary-treasurer.

Following the election of officers, the retiring president welcomed the new members and explained the leading interests and purpose of the club. Upon the suggestion of Edgar M. Flowers, faculty adviser, it was decided that the next meeting to be held on Wednesday, March 18, would be in the form of a trip through the newspaper plant of the Long Beach Sun to be followed by a saunter en masse to the municipal pike. In this manner both social and educational events will be advantageously combined.

Frolic Held By Women Of Y. W.

Instead of a regular program, games were played by members of the Y. W. C. A. last Monday evening at their meeting held in the junior college cafeteria. The meeting was in the form of a party and was in charge of Helen Estock.

Gifts for the "Y" hut, which the girls had formerly signed a pledge to donate, were brought and arranged in the building. A new idea which the members are considering is to attend a church of a different denomination each Sunday somewhere in Los Angeles.

Sisterhood Of Spinsters Enjoy Program Staged By Six Pledges

The Sisterhood of Spinsters were entertained at a bridge party by their six pledges last Monday evening in Tustin at the home of Marjorie Arundell.

After playing bridge, the Spinster members held a short business meeting, followed by an entertainment by pledges, consisting of a reading by Ione DeRemer, Marjorie Arundell and Eileen Adams rendered a special arrangement of "I Surrender" on the piano but were halted by the members, and Louise Proctor and Frances Bowman each sang a song accompanied by Burnadine Bender. First prize for the highest score

EXECUTIVES OF AGORIAN CLUB NAMED

Four Senates Included In Plan Of Commercial Organization

Hansen Of First National Bank Speaks

With 52 members present, the Agorian club held its first official meeting at Ketner's cafe last Friday. After fighting for the biggest part of last semester, this commercial club was finally officially recognized by the Executive Board last Monday when representatives appeared before that body and were granted a charter.

In point of membership the Agorian club is now one of the largest, and promises to be one of the most active clubs on the campus.

Its first official meeting was in the form of a banquet held at Ketner's cafe and is the first of a series of social activities which are anticipated by the new commercialists. The banquet was in charge of Kenneth Craig, the new president. Speakers for the evening were Robert L. Brown of the Santa Ana Book Store, and Harry L. Hanson of the First National bank.

The Agorian club is founded on principles somewhat new to campus organizations. It is organized on what is known as the independent federated plan; that is, there are four independent senates, namely: business, merchandising, accounting, and secretarial, each of which is responsible to a board, composed of representatives from each department.

Now that it has become fully organized the Agorian club looks forward to a semester full of activity.

Discussion of Junior Lions' week to be held the first week in May, and the formulation of plans for the junior college annual ditch day of which they are in charge were the main topics of discussion at the meeting of the Junior Lions club Monday evening at Ketner's cafe.

In addition to the discussion of these two topics rites were administered to the five new members of the club, Jim Thompson, Bruce Harbottle, Doyle Gilbert, Don Harrison and Bert Winslow. Following the banquet, members of the club attended a moving picture.

Proposals for a ditch day at Balboa met with the favor of members and a special committee headed by "Truck" Lindsey will appear before the executive board next Monday and offer their plans for ratification, it was learned.

The original subsidy of $150 for a trip to the Mission play has been cut from the budget and the Lions club will be forced to stage a ditch day with virtually no financial backing, it was learned.

was awarded to Helen Spangler while Phyllis O'Conner received the consolation prize. Refreshments were served and the meeting adjourned. Those who were present at the meeting were Mary Isch, Mary Todd Tate, Nelle Grafton, Marion Parsons, Grace Marcher, Marjory Adams, Bernice Summers, Helen Spangler, Ada Marie Hendricks, Betty Wiswall, Phyllis O'Conner, Wilma Patterson, Bernice Keller, Helen Hendricks, Mrs. Velma Sundquist, and the pledges, Ione DeRemer, Marjorie Arundell, Louise Proctor, Eileen Adams, Bernadine Bender, and Frances Bowman.

EDITORIAL COMMENT

The Bachelor Ball

The Brotherhood of Bachelors is to be congratulated on the success that marked the annual ball this year. That members of the Associated Students truly appreciate the work of the organization in staging such an activity is evidenced by the large attendance at the event.

As one of the social highlights of the year, the Santa Ana junior college can justly feel proud of the ball Saturday evening. The dance contributed to the prestige of the school and was representative of the high class entertainment that the college wishes to afford its students.

The Aim Of J. C.

Whether the junior college should have as its aim the training of men and women for entrance into the business world or preparation for training in institutions of higher learning has for some time been a question which educators of the state have faced.

According to a news dispatch, Vierling Kersey, state director of education, junior colleges of California will be the "peoples' college," that is, they will endeavor to offer in their curricula subjects that will aid students in making a livelihood. As a result of this aim, it was pointed out, townspeople will be able to avail themselves of the opportunity of increasing their efficiency in the line of work they have chosen.

That the junior college is gradually growing to be the "peoples' college" is shown by the number of commercial classes that have been added to the school in the last two years. There has also been an increase in the number of "special students," townspeople, attending classes offered by the school. Whether or not this type of a school is the more beneficial remains to be seen.

CRUEL FATE

Old Pete was such a well trained horse that when his master, Cy Law, called "Whoa", Pete would stop dead still in his tracks.

One day Cy was riding on Pete along the edge of a cliff, when Pete's foot slipped and both of them went over board. Down and down they fell; mile after mile until Cy became frantic thinking how he was going to stop Pete before they hit the rocks below. Suddenly Cy called out "Whoa Pete", and the horse slowly slid to a halt as his hoofs touched the bottom of the canyon.

Regaining his balance, Pete and his rider dashed madly across the plains. Cy glanced behind him and saw hundreds of Indians pursuing them.

The Indians captured Cy and Pete and led them to their camp, where Pete was slaughtered.

While the faithful boss was being devoured by the savage Indians, Cy was wondering how he could escape from his doom. An inspiration came to him and he screamed "Whoa Pete!" and Pete stopped in the Indians' throats and choked them all to death.

Cy escaped and went home to his wife and six children.

Prof: "You will fail. I need you in my class next quarter."

Actress: "Why what am I supposed to be?"

Director: "A college co-ed."

MY IDEAL

Every week or two some college professor, usually a bachelor, draws up plans and specifications for an idea husband. Dr. Edward Lyman Cornell of Northwestern University University is the latest savant to do so. Here is his list of the qualifications that prospective wives should look for in their intended:

He should allow you to audit his finances.

He should be healthy enough to swim 25 yards in 20 seconds.

He should be willing to rear children.

He should be ambitious and industrious.

He should be willing to make you an equal partner.

He should possess tact and a good disposition.

He should be mentally stable.

He should not be a braggart.

He should be of good character.

He would maintain a good appearance.

You can identify this ideal husband easily by the wings sprouting out above his shoulder blades. If the women wait for this Prince Charming to come along they'll all end up in being old maids for certain.

Wayne: "I can't give you anything but love."

Tiney: "Well, hurry up, let's have it."

Now we have the plumber who was so forgetful that he brought his tools with him.

"This is food for reflection," said the billy goat as he ate the looking glass.

"How did Warren take it when Marjorie gave him his ring back?"

"He took it to the nearest pawn shop."

OVER THE EDITOR'S DESK

By Richard Robbins

SANTA ANA junior college for the last two years has had more clubs per capita than any other similar institution in California.

THIS FACT has no doubt been a drawing card for the school. Its well known "Don Spirit" may be largely attributed to the well rounded social program that the college offers to its students.

SYNDICATE writers have recently expressed their opinion that the United States today is gradually advancing into the same predicament that caused the fall of the Romans, lack of participation in athletic activities.

THEY declare that too many people today are content to sit on the sidelines and watch contests instead of participating in them. This may appear to be the case when one views the vast crowds attending football games.

HOWEVER, the writers did not evidently consider the large number of students in school of the nation today who daily take part in athletic activities. The fact that virtually every student of high school and college age is required by law to take some form of physical education did not seem to be considered by the writer.

ONLY one poster advertising the Bachelor Ball was taken. This is a great improvement over the former situation which caused Anna M. Gilles, head of the art department, to issue a warning that no more signs would be prepared by the art department for school functions if any of those posted for the Bachelor event were taken. The one sign, however, must be returned.

STUDENT COMMENT

Editor, El Don:

I sincerely hope that you can forgive me for the dissertation I am about to write, but I feel that it may be beneficial—if applicable—to the Santa Ana junior college.

First, as I have not had the honor of your acquaintance, perhaps I attended the Santa Ana high school for three and one-half years, but graduated from the Brawley high school. Nevertheless, although I am a senior in the College of Engineering of the University of Colorado, I always call Santa Ana "home" and am, consequently, deeply interested in the welfare and activities of the students of Santa Ana.

From the pages of the "El Don" I have gathered that there is some difficulty in persuading the students to buy Associated Student tickets. May I explain the system used at this university? The expenses of every sport and the cost of the student periodical are prorated annually and the students are assessed a certain amount each quarter. Thus, the student ticket for the fall quarter costs $6.50, and entitles the holder to admission to all football games, and to the "Silver and Gold"—which is published twice a week. The winter quarter student ticket costs $2.00 and entitles the student to admission to all basketball, gymnastic, wrestling, and swimming meets—in addition to the subscription to the student paper. The spring quarter fee is also $2.00 and covers spring sports and the third quarter subscription to the Silver and Gold. Each student is required to purchase his student ticket at the same time he registers, and the university acts as a collection agency—thus, the purchase of a ticket is compulsory. The year-book purchase is optional with the student.

There is, of course, much to be said both for and against the above procedure; but I believe it is worth consideration if it can be applied to the conditions existing in the Santa Ana junior college.

I shall be very happy to know of any action you may take in the solution of this problem, and if I can be of any help, I shall be only too glad to assist you in any way I can.

Sincerely yours,

GEOFFREY BUCK,

COMMENTS-DEPARTMENTS

UNIQUE BITS

In Mexican Universities some very strict rules have recently been adopted forbidding students to appear on the campus bareheaded, barefooted, or coatless. One reason the officials gave for the passing of these regulations was that it tended to create a feeling of disrespect to superiors. The bareheaded habit was adopted from the United States. Officials heartily dislike the habit of the Mexican students to open the United States collegiates.

On Terminal Island has just been completed a Shinto Temple for the use of the Japanese fisherman that have gathered near. Shintoism is a system of rites that is more than a religion. It features Japanese court affairs as well. The royal family is at the head. It is said to date back to the sixth century. This temple is the first one to be built in Southern California.

Virtual slavery still exists in Palestine. Al Haga, an Arabian newspaper, charges that it is not unusual for Arab girls of ten years of age and even younger to be hired out for as long as 25 years at the rate of 5 dollars a year.

Clubs for the study of international problems have been so successful in the colleges and universities of the United States that an attempt is to be made to parallel them in Europe. It is hoped that in all the major institutions there will soon be a recognized group studying international relations.

The Japanese have found a haven at last. Brazil is willing to allow any numbers to come into that country. A bill to limit Japanese immigration was recently decisively defeated in the Brazilian Parliament. To show her gratitude Japan is sending 12,000 immigrants during this year.

Romania recently attempted to relieve the unemployment situation in that country by firing one of any two members of a family that held government positions. In the next three months there were 1492 petitions for divorces among state officials alone.

Fashionable European women have adopted a new pet. It is the African lion dog that is about the size of an Airedale. A queer striped effect down the middle of its back makes it match well with Spring fashions.

PERSONALS

Miss Betty Maloney has returned to campus activities, after being confined to her home, 930 South Broadway, with a brief attack of influenza.

JUST NAMES

Long, long ago in an old Green tower, a boy was Hidden — namely Mrs. Harris' son, Cole — Ah, quel dommage! His Day's were Long and weary although his room was connected with a bright and cheerful Hall, he never cared to go into it, but always waited patiently for the morning to come, when the Parson passed or a circus came and he could hear the Whistler calling. He had one lone, faithful servant by the name of Kaps, who could walk Miles for Cole, over the Hills by Hawk's well, by the shimmering Lake, and through the Wood, just to get Cook's biscuits and Brown cakes for him to eat. When Kaps would return, he would Neil before Cole and tell him he was Ireland's boy, whereupon Cole would tell him to put the Cook's Brown biscuit on the Lacy window sill where he could eat them and at the same time look out upon the grounds that would have made such a beautiful Park, had it not only been taken care of, and laid out by the great Swedish Gardner, Wins Low, whom Cole had read about. When the winds blew fiercely, and the branches of the trees parted, Cole could see in the distance a beautifully tall church and he longed to Hyde in the dusty aisles and hear the great organ play. But alas! Poor Cole was doomed to stay in his big Green tower for the Parson never came and the Butler, Kaps, was killed — and Cole died of hunger.

The Lake became Dryer and the ants ate all of the Cook's biscuit that were left, and Little by Little the whole Green tower, Hall and Aills house crumbled to pieces until today there Isch no trace left of anything.

SOMBREROS PLUS

American collegiates are able to enjoy hatless independence and are free from the tie that binds. Dirty cords and no coats are Americas example of what the comfortably dressed college man will wear on and about the campus.

Not so our neighbors to the south, as Mexicans schools officials have recently adopted strict rules regarding the dress of students. Coats and ties are required articles of apparel. Hats too must be worn on the campus. All because they regret that the Mexican youths are taking up too wholeheartedly so many of the habits of American college boys. They feel that such informality creates disrespect to superiors.

Mexico may be a revolutionary hot bed where men are men, but here's to the ripsnorting American college boys and comfort plus.

Johnson, all residents of Laguna, were appointed as chairmen for the event. The students will play games in the afternoon and then enjoy a wienie bake around a big camp fire in the evening. Those who care to will also go swimming.

It was decided to hold the final initiation of the two pledges on Monday, March 6, after spring vacation. This event will also be held at Laguna Beach in the home of Stanley Johnson and surrounding vicinity. Emmett Seacord and Jack Weatherly are the two scums who will receive their final degrees at this time. The "scums" were put through their paces Monday and presented a humorous program for the brothers. Wearing gunny sacks for underwear was only a small part of the fun for the two unfortunates.

The next meeting of the club will be held at the home of Warren Schutz, in Anaheim, after which the group will journey to the home of Jack Dutton for a dinner. Dutton was a former Bachelor and having accepted the vows of matrimony, is carrying out a Bachelor vow of treating the members to a dinner after the event.

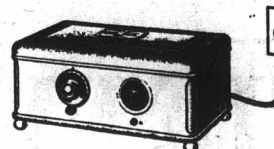

Following some exciting races and stunts out in the street by the pledges, refreshments of chili, beans and crackers were served and the pledges given a goodbye with various paddles.

COACHING CONTINUED

At first the new coaching course of Coach "Tex" Oliver was discontinued because of the lack of enrollment but the renewed interest in the course caused Dean Fisk to begin it again. The class gives three units plus a half unit for physical education.

Tuesdays and Thursdays are devoted to lectures while on the remaining three days the students coach the elementary grades. Last week the coaches held Junior Olympics for the different schools.

ALL-COAST TEAM CHOSEN

Two California, one U. S. C., one Stanford, and one U. C. L. A. basketball stars were chosen on the all-southern division of the Pacific coast by John Bunn, Stanford basketball coach.

The All-Star team is as follows: Linthicum U. C. L. A., and Kintana, forwards; Caldwell, U. S. C., center; and Fawcett, Stanford, and Coffield, California, guards.

California won the pennant this year with U. S. C. close on its heels. U. S. C. lost its chance for at least a tie for the championship by losing its last game to U. C. L. A.

Co-eds Named For Hockey Play-Day Held At Chaffey

First and second hockey teams have been named by Evelyn Yount, hockey coach, to play in the hockey play-day at Chaffey junior college in Ontario on March 7.

Since the teams have been chosen, Miss Yount has arranged several practice games with both Santa Ana and Tustin high schools. No official line-up or score was kept of the game with the Santa Ana seniors last Wednesday, but Miss Yount stated that it was a close game. The jaycee girls met for the second time the senior team from Tustin high school last Monday afternoon.

The members of the two teams are as follows:

First Team	Second Team
Riniker	RW. Hendricks
Hurd	RI. Richards
Gire	CF. McKinstry
Schilling	LI. Cokley
Cheney	LW. Sears
Green	LH. Teel
Bowman	CH. Early
Gardner	RH. Kaplan
Hasenjaeger	RF. Marshall
Hushman	LF. Whisler

Tennis Play-day To Be Held At Chaffey

Much competition has been shown from the number of girls entering in the tennis tournaments at Santa Ana junior college in the past week, the singles winner of which will represent the college in the tennis play-day at Chaffey junior college in Ontario on March 7.

Because of lack of tennis courts there will be, besides the first singles representative, first and second doubles. At present, few of the matches have been finished but those girls who are still in the race for first singles are Cleora Fine, Ruth Fitz, Jean DeRemer, Rachel Smith and Lorna Allen.

The candidates have all had much tennis experience and are good material, according to the tennis manager, Lorna Allen. Cleora Fine attended the local high school and played several years on the tennis squad. Ruth Fitz, a sophomore, played first singles last year for jaycee and Jean DeRemer, first singles for Excelsior high school, eliminated Imogene McCauley who was on the jaycee squad last semester. Lorna Allen and Marjorie Arundell who represented Tustin last year on the tennis squad are also strong competitors for the honor.

COACH BILL COOK'S TEAM MEETS COMTON IN NEXT DUAL MEET

Art Jacques And Doyle Gilbert Each Break All-Time Santa Ana Junior College Records; Local Team Still Needs More Candidates

Although overwhelmed last week by the Long Beach trackmen, Coach Bill Cook's Don squad will meet Compton here tomorrow on even terms. The Tartars started the season with an unbeatable team but ineligibility has cost them many veterans.

Santa Ana has been slow starting this season because of rains but now are fast rounding in shape. Captain Donahue has been especially hit by the lack of practice but with another week's practice he ought to be in fairly good shape.

Last week had about one man entered in each event but with several new aspirants this week every event ought to be filled up.

Padres Lose Meet

Scoring only 27 points last week against Long Beach, Coach Cook's squad was beaten by a score of 99 to 27. Santa Ana won only three first places but were defeated mostly because the Vikings were in mid-season form.

Art Jacques and Doyle Gilbert turned in the best performance for the locals. Jacques broke the high jump record for the Santa Ana junior college with a jump of six feet one-fourth inch. The former record was held jointly by Art and Bob Jacques at six feet. Gilbert's jump of 22 feet 2 inches shattered the old record of Al Claves of 21 feet 4 inches.

Melvin Beatty won the other first place in the javelin with a heave of 159 feet.

Donahue Loses Mile

Captain Donahue's defeat in the mile proved that the Dons were not yet in shape for he led the race up to the last 100 yards, but lacked the finishing spurt.

The high hurdles proved to be the thrilling event of the day with Don Dresser barely getting nosed out of first place. Lee Dresser also ran a good race in the 440 but was boxed on the last turn and had to be contented with a third place.

In the pole vault Gilbert vaulted 11 feet which is a foot higher than he ever had done before. With a little more practice Doyle has possibilities of reaching 12 feet before the end of the season.

Watkins, Lindley and Reinaus accounted for the rest of Santa Ana's digits. Watkins took third in the 880, Lindley's third in the shot and Reinaus scored a point in the discus.

Dashes Weak

Santa Ana showed that it was weak in the 100, 220, two mile and 220 low hurdles with Long Beach placing three men in each event. The Vikings strength was largely due to having at least three men in each event.

Hallet proved to be the star for Long Beach placing in the pole vault, broad jump, and high jump. Skinner also showed up well for the visitors by winning both the 100 and 220 yard dashes.

Eight Basketball Men To Get Letters

Although the Santa Ana junior college basketball team lost all of its games except one, it was hard working and fighting team which forced its opponents to the limit. Next year will find four lettermen returning for basketball practice. The players returning will be Emmett Seacord, Don Johnson, Elwood Lindley, and Kiyoshi, all stellar athletes of the college.

The following basketball players are recommended for basketball letters by Coach Bill Foote: Hal Dunham, Wayne Garlock, Max Appleby, Melvin Beatty, Don Johnson, Elwood Lindley, Kiyoshi Higashi. The manager, Edward Fry and his assistant, Bill Cowley, will also receive letters.

Coach Bill Foote's team started the season out like a flag winner giving Long Beach a scare. The team seemed to lack that last minute punch to stop the rally of the opposing teams and win. Every game that was won from Santa Ana was won in the last minutes of play. Unfortunately Fullerton was the only victory that the boys were able to bring home, therefore tying for the cellar position.

Bill Foote sorely missed the services of Captain Orville Schuchardt, who has signed a baseball contract with El Paso, Texas.

"Truck" Lindsey's failure to purchase a student body ticket costs him a basketball letter for this season. "Truck" played a steady game at guard for the Don squad.

More Tennis Men Needed On Santa Ana Court Teams

Lester A. Archer, tennis coach, has scheduled a practice match in tennis with Whittier for the coming Saturday if the necessary arrangements can be made.

As yet only three places have been filled on the eight man team, these are: Bob Kirk, first ranking singles man; Charles Waters, second ranking in singles man and Cecil Slaback, who will hold down third place if his ankle, which is sprained is better by the time of the first match. Fourth place in the singles division and both doubles teams are open yet.

Coach Archer is none to optimistic as to the hopes of the Dons this season in the fact that none of the material, with the exception of Kirk, Waters and Slaback, are of college stuff, and the fact that none of them seem to care to tryout for the doubles teams. If a good partner can be found for Cecil Slaback, the Dons would have one pretty good team for doubles competition. To find good doubles material is the reason Archer has scheduled a practice match with Whittier, who have a fast outfit and would bring out any talent the Dons have in the doubles line.

No conference schedule has yet been received, but a tentative schedule is expected this week.

The fact that only three courts are available for two hours each day is working a hardship on the squad.

CANDIDATES REPORT FOR BALL SQUAD

Padres To Play Three Home Games; Five Pitchers Report

Baseball practice began last Monday with a turnout of more than 21 candidates for the 1931 team. Coach Clyde Cook was well pleased with the material he has on hand and thinks that the Dons will make a good bid for the title this spring.

At first there was some doubt as to whether the locals could finance a team this season, but by cutting down the budget on other activities, it was possible to retain the national pastime.

Bomo Koral, former Saint star, raised the padres hopes when he reported for practice as he is a fairly good pitcher besides being able to play any of the other light positions.

Fine Pitchers Report

Coach Cook will also have Les Fulson, Wilton Hillard, Leonard Natland and Elwood Lindley on his pitching staff.

Melvin Beatty and Jac Gifford are the two candidates for the catching position. Beatty is a veteran from last season and ought to give a good account of himself again this year.

Fullerton also is a strong contender this season as it has a veteran for every position. The complete schedule is as follows:

March 28—Santa Ana at Long Beach, Glendale at Fullerton, Compton at Los Angeles, Pasadena bye.

April 4—Fullerton at Pasadena, Santa Ana at Compton, Los Angeles at Glendale, Long Beach, bye.

April 11—Fullerton at Los Angeles, Glendale at Long Beach, Pasadena at Santa Ana, Compton, bye.

April 18—Glendale at Pasadena, Long Beach at Los Angeles, Compton at Fullerton, Santa Ana bye.

April 25—Long Beach at Compton, Los Angeles at Pasadena, Santa Ana at Glendale, Fullerton bye.

May 2—Los Angeles at Santa Ana, Pasadena at Compton, Long Beach at Fullerton, Glendale bye.

May 9—Compton at Glendale, Fullerton at Santa Ana, Pasadena at Long Beach, Los Angeles bye.

MENINAS GROUP TO STAGE BALL

May 1 Named As Tentative Date For Dance; Plan Mt. Baldy Trip

Plans for Las Meninas annual ball, which will probably be held May 1, were formulated at the regular meeting of that organization last evening, in the home of Ruth Gardner, 1602 North Broadway. During the business meeting, it was also decided to hold final initiation at Camp Baldy on March 14, when seven pledges will probably take the formal rites.

A new constitution to replace the old one which had been lost, was read by the president, Catherine Harwood and articles approved and voted upon. Neva McDonald was unanimously elected sergeant-at-arms. Acceptance was made of social invitations extended the club, both by the Sisterhood of Spinster and the Moav club.

Following the business meeting an amusing skit entitled "The Disturbed Wedding" was presented by the seven pledges. Those pledges who attended the Bachelors' Ball at the Norconian club were also required to give a detailed account of their dates.

Survey At University Of California Reveals That Former Junior College Students Active On Berkeley Campus

BERKELEY — Nearly 450, or about 30 per cent, of the former students of California junior colleges now enrolled at the University of California are active participants in undergraduate activities, according to a report released recently by an investigating committee appointed by the Welfare Council of the Associated Students.

Detailed reports submitted by the heads of more than 35 student activities indicate, it was found, that of about 3,500 students engaged in activities of all kinds some 450 are students from junior colleges. This number, it is pointed out, represents about 12 per cent of all the students in activities and slightly less than 30 per cent of the 1,500 former junior college students who are now enrolled in the University.

Conditions are shown

The investigation was begun, the committee states in preface to its 50-page report, "with the hope of uncovering the exact conditions pertaining to junior college students in activities. The investigation is in no way concerned with the question of the relative merits of the junior college students after they enter the University."

The report concludes that while statistics are not available, "it might be hazarded that junior college students have approximately the same opportunity as the regular four-year students, considering that they have had less experience in activities and have no seniority rights." The problem of such students in activities "is not a serious one and the few instances where difficulty arises are special cases which do not represent the entire activity list," the report adds.

Many Activities Open

In its detailed investigation of activities the committee found that a large number of activities of all sorts are open to students of junior standing. These include virtually all intercollegiate and intramural sports, dramatics, the band, Glee Club—debating teams and a number of engineering and technical societies.

Positions on the staffs of publications are for the most part closed, it was found, because the seniority rights of members who have worked up from freshman or sophomore positions, and because of the requirements of experience. However, no restrictions as to standing in the University are placed upon contributors to the three magazines published.

Similar conditions were found to exist with the exceptions of intramural sports and golf, and in a number of student committees where experience is considered an important prerequisite for membership by upper class men or women students.

More Than 200 Persons Attend Ball Sponsored By S. A. Jaysee Bachelors

Pronounced a complete success by the crowd of over 200 students and alumni of the Santa Ana junior college, the sixth annual Bachelors' Ball was held last Saturday in the luxurious setting of the Lake Norconian club near Corona.

The dance proved to be the biggest and best in the history of the Brotherhood of Bachelors, pioneer men's service club which sponsored the annual event. This was the second successive time the ball was held at the Lake Norconian club. Last year, Everett Idler and his Varsity-tonians furnished the music while the affair last week was featured by the appearance and music of Joe Lindbaum and his Coconut Grove nine piece orchestra from the Breakers hotel in Long Beach.

The main ballroom of the exclusive Norco resort was profusely decorated. The motifs for the dance and Bachelors banquet were divided between the traditional rolling pin of the Brotherhood and the spirit of George Washington. Clever dance programs were in the form of red, black and silver books containing a short story of the club as well as the program for the evening.

Warren Schutz, retiring grand exalted Bachelors, was in charge of arrangements for the affair, and was assisted by George Griffith and Tom Cone, advertising, Ervin Watkins, Kiyoshi Higashi, programs and place cards; Wayne Flinn and Everett Idler, music and Jac Crawford, ticket sales. Art posters were made under the direction of Miss Anna Gilles, art department head.

Although the ball was of paramount interest to the group in general, the Bachelors found their interest centered in the annual banquet of the organization, held preceding the dance in a private dining room of the clubhouse. The pretty co-eds who were special guests of the Bachelors, were entertained at this function. Sheldon Hayden, faculty adviser of the club, acted as toastmaster and introduced the various former members of the club who were in attendance.

Schutz then installed the new officers, reading the impressive ritual of the club. Wayne Flinn, new grand exalted, made a short speech of acceptance on behalf of the new administration, which also included George Griffith, senior exalted; George Blewitt, junior exalted; Jac

LONGFELLOWS MEET TONIGHT

In accordance with the newly organized society of Longfellows, a meeting will be held tonight in the printshop to decide upon the 21 names chosen to be designated as "active members" of the club, and to select from the remainder of the old organization ten men to undergo a period of pledgeship.

Julian Lecrivain, chairman of a committee appointed by Charlie Greenleaf, newly elected president of the club, will present a new constitution for approval, embodying the essentials of membership and other details of the organization. A report will also be made by a committee designated to set a date for Faculty-Longfellow Basketball game and golf match, both of which have been pending some time.

Since their organization three semesters ago, the Society of Longfellows has been known as the foremost service organization on the campus. Their two annual fashion shows, representation in all Orange county parades, and their effort in getting city to raise unnecessarily low awnings on a number of buildings have gained them state-wide publicity as the most unique man organization in any western college.

Those chosen as active members are: Wilton Hilliard, Eldon Bragg, Truscott Lindsey, Charlie Greenleaf, Charles Crumrine, Chet Cook, Ray Kohler, Julian Lecrivain, Harry

First Second Round Debate Here Friday

The first league debates of the second round will be held Friday night at seven o'clock in the Administration building in room 231. The debaters will be Martha Spaulding and Lewis Bates who will hold up the negative.
